The University of Worcester will be leading new termly network meetings for subject leaders of SENDi

Each session will include:

- The latest updates in SEND education and policy and a chance to discuss how these feed into everyday life in school and as a SENCo. We will provide training in key aspects of SEND provision in line with the current priorities and challenges the sector may be facing.
- A chance to stay up to date with learning and teaching in SEND education as well as exploring procedures and pedagogy for inclusion.
- An opportunity to network with other SENCo's and SEND education providers to share aspects of practice, resources and advice.
